

THE EPSILON SIGMA

ΕΣ, ΣΝ

Message from our Eminent Commander Alex Hemphill:

Brothers,

We've had a great start to this semester. Despite Omicron and a cold front delaying rush until mid February, the chapter inducted 21 new candidates, the largest rush class of all fraternities here at Rhodes College. Things continue to get better and better for our chapter, and we hope to see y'all at an event soon!

Hope you enjoy this newsletter!

Candidate Spotlight

Ethan Frischhertz:

Pledge Class President Ethan Frischhertz is part of the lacrosse team for Rhodes College. He also serves on the board of the Health Professions Society and is a part of the Kinney Service Program. He also conducts research at the Seton Hospital in the Greater Austin area over the summer.

Evan DeVine:

A rising star of the Rhodes Golf team, Evan played for the Fall invitational. He independently took part in the Florida Winter Amateur Tournament and will be part of the Rhodes Spring Invitational. A graduate of the prestigious IMG Academy, Evan hopes to continue excelling in both his academic and athletic career while at Rhodes.

Dylan Morris:

A dedicated member of the Rhodes Community, Dylan serves as an environment coordinator for the Kinney Service Program. He was chosen to be a diplomat, in which capacity he will be giving campus tours to prospective students. He is also an Academic Peer Coach and is part of the Frisbee team at Rhodes College.

Logan Collier:

Sophomore Logan Collier is a Curb Fellow and works with the Mike Curb Institute for Music at Rhodes College as a part of the video team. He uses his skills derived from his study of Computer Science to explore the breadth of the Memphis music tradition and expand the liberal arts experience at Rhodes College.

Jacob Ashby:

Passionate about empowerment of impoverished communities, Jacob volunteers for Claire's House, a refuge that helps women with housing and skill-development in order to help them escape homelessness. He previously held student union leadership positions in Oregon, and is deeply interested in Classical and rap music.

Frankie Moutier:

Sophomore Frankie Moutier is a very active member of the Gender and Sexuality Alliance on Rhodes Campus. Passionate about performing arts, he is also part of the Rhodes Theater Guild. He also acts as a Diplomat, giving prospective Rhodes students and families guided tours of the campus.
